Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-36 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. Applicant has filed an RCE 11/20/06.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 1,2,4-9,11-21 and 23-28 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The presently rejected claims fail to disclose statutory form,. An example of a possible correction “a computer processing the following steps” or “a program on a computer readable medium.”

Claims 1,2,4-9,11-21 and 23-36 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention lacks patentable utility. The present invention as claimed fails to produce a tangible result. For example of a possible correction could be “returning a message with the inferred relation weight query to the client” or “wherein the documents are retrieved and stored in memory.”
